Get Tickets to BeWILDerwood Cheshire's Glorious Glowing Lantern Parade this October!

See the woods in a whole new light at BeWILDerwood's most enchanting event of the year, The Glorious Glowing Lantern Parade, coming to the WILD woods in Cheshire this October half term!

From the 23rd to 31st October, visitors can adventure through a spectacular light extravaganza and watch the story of BeWILDerwood unfold as they journey through the woods down mysterious paths exclusive to this event.

Le Grand Fromage aka author and creator of the magical book series BeWILDerwood is based on, Tom Blofeld said,

“This amazing event is based on BeWILDerwood Norfolk's famous Lantern Parade, which is so popular with locals in Norfolk. So, we're sure everyone will love the Cheshire event just as much! It really is set to be a magical event for all the family to enjoy this October. But we do recommend booking your tickets early as it historically sells out very fast!”

So, what can you expect from the extra special out of hours event?

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

As dusk falls visitors can craft their very own Boggle Bindle Lantern to help the Boggles light up the woods, before embarking on a journey through BeWILDerwood like you have never seen before. Navigate your way through the beautifully lit twilight woodland and keep a look out for hints of the BeWILDerwood characters peering out to say 'yoo-hoo!' along the way. But don't worry if you aren't the bravest Boggle – it's spooky not scary!

A wonderful array of yummy grub will be available at the onsite Munch bar, including warming snacks and hot drinks. The team at BeWILDerwood encourage visitors to come dressed in their very best spooktacular costumes too.

How do you get tickets for The Glorious Glowing Lantern Parade?

Tickets will go on sale online from 10am on the 1st September.

Tickets to The Glorious Glowing Lantern Parade are £10 per person (under 92cm, wheelchair users and carers are free!). Please note, this is a wonderful twilight walk through the woods and play structures will not be open.

The Parade has scheduled time slots and is a separate ticketed event. Timeslots will start from 6pm and tickets need to be booked online in advance. If you wish to visit in the day and in the evening, you will need to make two separate bookings.

BeWILDerwood will shine like never before in a gloriously glowing woodland display, so book your tickets for the final event of the year before its too late!

Editor Notes:

About BeWILDerwood:

BeWILDerwood Cheshire opened its gates in April 2021. The attraction is based on the book series by author and creator Tom Blofeld, with hints of his magical stories and curious characters throughout the forest.

This multi-million-pound investment aims to encourage even more children and their families to enjoy traditional, imaginative, and healthy outdoor play.

The unique woodland adventure park is located next to the historic Cholmondeley Castle, in South Cheshire. Since opening, the Cheshire site has been a huge hit with positive reviews flooding in.

BeWILDerwood opened its first park in May 2007, on the outskirts of the Broadland village of Hoveton, Norfolk. BeWILDerwood Norfolk is one of the most successful visitor attractions in the East of England. Beautifully designed to be in keeping with its natural surroundings, the park encourages outdoor, nostalgic play and allows families to create lasting memories.
